Let's make a great big toast to Texas. With around 340 independent grape vineyards and over 500 wineries, Texas has earned it. In fact, several of our native grapes originated here thousands of years ago, so great wine has been growing here for a real long time.

WINE WOWS

In 2022, the Texas wine industry was valued to have an economic impact of over $20 billion.

The Texas grape industry currently consists of nearly 6,000 acres of grape production and creates 141,235 jobs throughout the state.
